

Directions from

Geneva Airport to Pepperdine's Maison du Lac

1. In the GVA baggage claim, check the SBB (Swiss National Railways) departure board for the next train departing to Lausanne
2. After exiting the baggage claim doors, turn left and continue down the hallway and exit the airport through the glass doors on your right.
3. Buy a direct, one-way ticket to Lausanne for the appropriate number of adults and children in your group. Kiosk machines are in English and most accept credit cards.
4. Continue toward the main departure board to check which platform your train is on. Look for “Lausanne” as one of the destinations, and make a note of which “voie” (or platform) your train will be leaving from
5. Board the train and enjoy your first views of Switzerland. The trains take 45 minutes to an hour. Be sure to listen for the conductor to announce Lausanne as the next stop.
6. Exit at the Lausanne station and walk toward the front of train station. You may need to use the tunnel under the track for some platforms. After exiting the train station, turn left, cross the street by Asia Express, and follow the road up the hill toward the stop light
7. At the first major intersection, turn left onto Marc-Dufour). Continue down the hill. Maison du Lac will be on your right and side, identified by a large “Pepperdine University” sign.
